OVERVIEW

Dear Parents and Students:

AYA invites you to join us on our annual tour of 10 to 14 Historical Black Colleges & Universities (HBCU). As you already know, the selection of a college or university is a very serious decision for both you and your family. Predominantly African American colleges and universities have a much higher graduation rate for students of color. We suggest that all students visit all institutions they anticipate attending.

AYA's tour of Historical Black Colleges & Universities will take place during the week of February 16 thru 21, 2008. The cost of the tour is $695.00. To register you must submit an application along with the application fee and two photos. A $100.00 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve a seat. All individuals attending the tour must have medical coverage. Chaperones will be traveling with AYA. All participants and family members must attend an orientation prior to the trip.
